Southern Shores Gardeners

Southern Shores has many great volunteers who are gardeners. The Town has been notify that Dare County Extension will be holding a training for Master Gardener Volunteer and you can become part of a dynamic volunteer organization that is nearly 100 members strong. Learn about coastal landscaping, soils, botany, vegetable gardening, lawn care and more. Dare County Master Gardeners also have many fun opportunities to volunteer and share gardening advice with the public as well as help develop a beautiful arboretum for the benefit of the entire county and beyond. The application deadline is December 12th. Training begins in February. For more information, "email" or call the Extension Office at 473-4290.

Tell your Neighbors Community Caroling – December 9th

The Town is having a community Christmas Caroling, Friday, December 9, 2005 7:00 p.m. at the Pitts Center. Bring your family and friends to help celebrate the holiday season. Hot cider and goodies will be served. Fun for all adults and children.
